

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

We have progressed (?) from a time of "Fairness in Broadcasting" to a time when a person can travel across this nation without hearing a single solitary broadcast from any "liberal" point of view - at any time of the day or night on any station to be found.

NOW you want to limit that even further by further narrowing any diversity of media ownership? PLEASE DON'T!
